Cornell Outdoor Education is committed to providing outdoor education opportunities for all students. To achieve this goal we offer the following:

- ◆ Several tuition-free courses every semester. These courses are tuition free as long as the participant meets attendance requirements, otherwise the full tuition rate is charged. See our brochure or www.coe.cornell.edu for more details.
- ◆ Financial aid for other courses to qualified students, based on availability of funds and financial need. To see if you qualify, please answer the questions below.

The amount of each award will depend on our budget, cost of the class in which you have enrolled, and the number of qualified students that apply. Awards will range up to $100. Funds are limited and are disbursed on a first come-first served basis, starting at the beginning of fall and spring semesters. All grant award decisions are made at the discretion of Cornell Outdoor Education and are final. You may submit this application to the COE Registrar at B01 Bartels Hall. Grants will be credited to your bursar bill upon successful completion of your course. Aid recipients are subject to all COE enrollment policies, which can be found at www.coe.cornell.edu.
